

Aschoff Solar Company News

July 2016

Political visit at an Aschoff Solar Power System on the Philippines

Bärbel Höhn, the German Chairwoman of the Committee for Environment, Nature Conservation, Construction and Nuclear Safety visited on 27th of June the Aschoff Solar Power System at Royal Cargo on the Philippines.

The System applies as reference project at the GIZ, the visit included the following attendees:

- Michael Hasper (Deputy Head of Mission), German Embassy Manila
- Michael Kurt Räuber (Group CEO), Royal Cargo Inc.
- Bernd Jueckmann (Regional Director), Aschoff Solar GmbH
- Michael Vemuri (Chief Advisor Renewable Energy), GIZ
- Markus Dietrich (Coordinator PEP Philippines), GIZ

Part of the daily schedule were presentations, held by Michael Kurt Räuber, Bernd Jueckmann, Michael Vemuri and Markus Dietrich, as well as a tour and visitation of the Solar Power System.

Project Data

Customer: Royal Cargo Combined Logistics, Inc.
Location: LIIP, Mamplasan, Biñan, Laguna, Philippines
Solar Power: 245 kWp
Solar Yield: 300,820 kWh/year

